Secretary: Shall keep an accurate record of the proceedings of all club meetings. The Secretary shall assist with newsletters or any club communications and shall process all member applications (new and renewal), waivers, safety sheets, distribute new membership cards and lock combination information.

Treasurer: Shall receive club monies, maintain a club bank account and keep accurate accounting of all club monies. He/she shall be responsible for paying all club debts, with club monies, such as rent, taxes or other bills.

Board of Directors (BOD): The BOD shall assist the Officers in investigating and reviewing details of any situation or problems concerning the club. They shall make recommendations for any problem resolution. The BOD shall make recommendations for improved safety and/or improvements to the club. The BOD shall review the Constitution and By-Laws every four years, with the newly elected Officers, in May, coinciding with the election of new Officers.

ARTICLE VII. MEETINGS

Club Members Meetings (open meetings) shall be held, at minimum, of once a year. Notice of a general Members Meeting shall be posted at the club and/or sent in a member's letter or e-mail.

Board of Directors Meetings (including the Officers): Club Officers and the BOD shall meet at least twice a year (once during the open member meeting) or more as deemed necessary by the President, Officers or Board members.

ARTICLE VIII. COMMITTEES

Committees shall be appointed by the President or with the approval of the President, through the Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer or a member of the BOD.

ARTICLE IX. ELECTIONS

Officers shall be nominated and elections held during the annual Member's meeting in April and take office in May. Elections, by secret ballot, shall be held every four years or sooner if it is necessary to replace a resigning officer. Replacement officers shall hold office until the completion of the original term such that the re-election schedule is maintained. Winner of an election is by majority vote.

ARTICLE X. CHANGES to the CONSTITUTION and BY-LAWS

Any member may suggest an amendment in writing to a club Officer or member of the BOD. Any proposed changes will be posted at the club and/or put in a letter / e-mail and will include information concerning the proposed amendment or alteration. To determine if an alteration or amendment to this Constitution and By-Laws will be approved, the members present and voting shall vote for or against such amendments or alterations. The decision will be determined by two-thirds vote. This may be done by open or closed ballot whichever the President decides is best for the integrity of the club.
